Mark Scheme for June 2022

OCR (Oxford Cambridge and RSA) is a leading UK awarding body, providing a wide range of qualifications to meet the needs of candidates of all ages and abilities. OCR qualifications include AS/A Levels, Diplomas, GCSEs, Cambridge Nationals, Cambridge Technicals, Functional Skills, Key Skills, Entry Level qualifications, NVQs and vocational qualifications in areas such as IT, business, languages, teaching/training, administration and secretarial skills.

It is also responsible for developing new specifications to meet national requirements and the needs of students and teachers. OCR is a not-for-profit organisation; any surplus made is invested back into the establishment to help towards the development of qualifications and support, which keep pace with the changing needs of today's society.

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and students, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which marks were awarded by examiners. It does not indicate the details of the discussions which took place at an examiners' meeting before marking commenced.

All examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the published question papers and the report on the examination.

MARKING INSTRUCTIONS*PREPARATION FOR MARKING*RM ASSESSOR

1. Make sure that you have accessed and completed the relevant training packages for on-screen marking: RM Assessor assessor Online Training; OCR Essential Guide to Marking.
2. Make sure that you have read and understood the mark scheme and the question paper for this unit. These are posted on the RM Cambridge Assessment Support Portal <http://www.rm.com/support/ca>
3. Log-in to RM Assessor and mark the required number of practice responses (“scripts”) and the required number of standardisation responses.

MARKING

1. Mark strictly to the mark scheme.
2. Marks awarded must relate directly to the marking criteria.
3. The schedule of dates is very important. It is essential that you meet the RM Assessor 50% and 100% (traditional 40% Batch 1 and 100% Batch 2) deadlines. If you experience problems, you must contact your Team Leader (Supervisor) without delay.
4. If you are in any doubt about applying the mark scheme, consult your Team Leader by telephone or the RM Assessor messaging system, or by email.

5. Crossed Out Responses

Where a candidate has crossed out a response and provided a clear alternative then the crossed out response is not marked. Where no alternative response has been provided, examiners may give candidates the benefit of the doubt and mark the crossed out response where legible.

Rubric Error Responses – Optional Questions

Where candidates have a choice of question across a whole paper or a whole section and have provided more answers than required, then all responses are marked and the highest mark allowable within the rubric is given. Enter a mark for each question answered into RM assessor, which will select the highest mark from those awarded. (The underlying assumption is that the candidate has penalised themselves by attempting more questions than necessary in the time allowed.)

Contradictory Responses

When a candidate provides contradictory responses, then no mark should be awarded, even if one of the answers is correct.

Short Answer Questions (requiring only a list by way of a response, usually worth only one mark per response)

Where candidates are required to provide a set number of short answer responses then only the set number of responses should be marked. The response space should be marked from left to right on each line and then line by line until the required number of responses have been considered. The remaining responses should not then be marked. Examiners will have to apply judgement as to whether a 'second response' on a line is a development of the 'first response', rather than a separate, discrete response. (The underlying assumption is that the candidate is attempting to hedge their bets and therefore getting undue benefit rather than engaging with the question and giving the most relevant/correct responses.)

Short Answer Questions (requiring a more developed response, worth two or more marks)

If the candidates are required to provide a description of, say, three items or factors and four items or factors are provided, then mark on a similar basis – that is downwards (as it is unlikely in this situation that a candidate will provide more than one response in each section of the response space.)

Longer Answer Questions (requiring a developed response)

Where candidates have provided two (or more) responses to a medium or high tariff question which only required a single (developed) response and not crossed out the first response, then only the first response should be marked. Examiners will need to apply professional judgement as to whether the second (or a subsequent) response is a 'new start' or simply a poorly expressed continuation of the first response.

6. Always check the pages (and additional objects if present) at the end of the response in case any answers have been continued there. If the candidate has continued an answer there then add a tick to confirm that the work has been seen.

7. Award No Response (NR) if:

- there is nothing written in the answer space

Award Zero '0' if:

- anything is written in the answer space and is not worthy of credit (this includes text and symbols).

Team Leaders must confirm the correct use of the NR button with their markers before live marking commences and should check this when reviewing scripts.

8. The RM Assessor comments box is used by your team leader to explain the marking of the practice responses. Please refer to these comments when checking your practice responses. Do not use the comments box for any other reason.

If you have any questions or comments for your team leader, use the phone, the RM Assessor messaging system, or e-mail.

9. Assistant Examiners will send a brief report on the performance of candidates to their Team Leader (Supervisor) via email by the end of the marking period. The report should contain notes on particular strengths displayed as well as common errors or weaknesses. Constructive criticism of the question paper/mark scheme is also appreciated.

10. For answers marked by levels of response:

- To determine the level – start at the highest level and work down until you reach the level that matches the answer
- To determine the mark within the level, consider the following:

Descriptor	Award mark
On the borderline of this level and the one below	At bottom of level

Just enough achievement on balance for this level	Above bottom and either below middle or at middle of level (depending on number of marks available)
Meets the criteria but with some slight inconsistency	Above middle and either below top of level or at middle of level (depending on number of marks available)
Consistently meets the criteria for this level	At top of level

11. Annotations

Annotation	Meaning
 1	Level 1
 2	Level 2
 3	Level 3
 4	Level 4
 5	Level 5
SEEN	Noted but no credit given
NAQ	Not answered question
	Extendable horizontal wavy line

1. Subject-specific Marking Instructions

INTRODUCTION

Your first task as an Examiner is to become thoroughly familiar with the material on which the examination depends. This material includes:

- the specification, especially the assessment objectives
- the question paper and its rubrics
- the mark scheme.

You should ensure that you have copies of these materials.

Please ask for help or guidance whenever you need it. Your first point of contact is your Team Leader.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXAMINERS

- 1 The practice and standardisation scripts provide you with examples of the standard of each band. The marks awarded for these scripts will have been agreed by the PE and Senior Examiners.
- 2 The specific task-related indicative content for each question will help you to understand how the band descriptors may be applied. However, this indicative content does not constitute the mark scheme: it is material that candidates might use, grouped according to each assessment objective tested by the question. It is hoped that candidates will respond to questions in a variety of ways. Rigid demands for 'what must be a good answer' would lead to a distorted assessment.
- 3 Candidates' answers must be relevant to the question. Beware of seemingly prepared answers that do not show the candidate's thought and which have not been adapted to the thrust of the question. Beware also of answers where candidates attempt to reproduce interpretations and concepts that they have been taught but have only partially understood.

The USA 1945–1974: The People and the State

1. Describe one action taken by the women's movement between 1964 and 1975.

Assessment Objectives	AO1: Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the periods studied. [2]
Additional Guidance	All content is indicative only and any other correct examples of action taken by the women's movement should also be credited.  2 marks for 2 identifications OR 1 mark for identification + second mark for descriptive detail.

Levels	Indicative content	Marks
N/A Points marking. Only allow one very weak id, not 2-eg 'campaigned for women's rights'. Demonstrations/protests = 0 without further detail.	NOW organized demonstrations in the street. [1] NOW used the courts to fight discrimination. [1] Women protested for equal pay. [1] The National Organization for Women used the courts to get back pay for women who had not been paid equally to men [2]. Women's Liberation tried to raise awareness about how society treated women [1]. They protested at the Miss World contest, saying the competition treated women like animals [2]. They crowned a sheep as Miss World. [2] One action was challenging women's position as housewives and homemakers [1]. Betty Friedan argued that this left many women unhappy and de-skilled. [2]. Took action to change abortion laws [1]. This case is famously called Roe v Wade [1]. The court said abortion had to be legal as it is an invasion of women's privacy otherwise [2].	2

2. Explain the role of the Supreme Court in the achievement of civil rights for African Americans in the 1950s and 1960s in the USA.

Assessment Objectives	AO1: Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the periods studied. [5]  AO2: Explain and analyse historical events and periods studied using second order historical concepts. [5]
Additional Guidance	The 'Indicative content' is an example of historically valid content; any other historically valid content is acceptable and should be credited in line with the levels of response.  The 'Indicative content' shown is not a full exemplar answer, but exemplifies the sophistication expected at each level.  No reward can be given for wider knowledge of the period that remains unrelated to the topic in the question.

Levels	Indicative content	Marks
Level 5 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Response demonstrates a range of detailed and accurate knowledge and understanding that is fully relevant to the question.</li> <li>This is used to develop a full explanation and thorough, convincing analysis, using second order historical concepts, of the issue in the question.</li> </ul>	Level 5 answers will typically identify the role of the Supreme Court on two occasions and explain each fully. The Supreme Court played a role in ending segregation in schools by ruling that segregated schools were illegal. After Linda Brown was refused the right to go to her local 'white' school her family were angry. They took the issue to the NAACP who decided to use it as a test case to see whether the Supreme Court would allow states to continue to segregate schools. Justice Earl Warren in the Supreme court ruled that segregated schools could not be considered equal and that southern states should desegregate with 'all deliberate speed'. Although many southern states dragged their heels, he has established an important principle in 1954. The Supreme Court also played a role in ending segregation on public transport by declaring that Montgomery's bus laws were illegal. After Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat for a white man on a bus in Montgomery Alabama, the bus boycott started to try and get the laws about segregation on buses changed. Local judges didn't help, in fact they made the situation worse, by ruling that the car pools that African Americans had set up to get to work were illegal. However, the Supreme court was impressed by the arguments the civil rights lawyers presented about Rosa Park's arrest. They ruled that segregation on buses was illegal, which implied that all segregation of public facilities was illegal. This was a major achievement in the battle for civil rights. THRESHOLD ANSWERS One role was in schools through its involvement in the Linda Brown case. The NACCP took the issue of segregated schools to the Supreme Court and it ruled that southern states should desegregate schools because they were not equal. This had established an important principle already in the 1950s when other forms of segregation still existed. Another role was in public transport in the Montgomery Bus Boycott. Rosa Parks was arrested for protesting about segregation by not giving up her seat for a white man, and the boycott started. When the case was taken to the Supreme Court, they ruled that segregation on buses was illegal. This meant that all segregation of public facilities was illegal. This was a major achievement.	9–10

3. Explain the impact of the Red Scare in the USA between 1945 and 1954.

Assessment Objectives	AO1: Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the periods studied. [5] AO2: Explain and analyse historical events and periods studied using second order historical concepts. [5]
Additional Guidance	The 'Indicative content' is an example of historically valid content; any other historically valid content is acceptable and should be credited in line with the levels of response. For example, the cases of Hiss and the Rosenbergs led to Congress passing the McCarran Act in 1950. So the fear of communism meant that the Bill of Rights was under threat. Secondly, McCarthy's 'witch hunts' and the HUAC's activities created an atmosphere of fear. So the Red Scare meant that hundreds of people's lives and careers were ruined [[Alternatively candidates may focus on the Rosenbergs/ Hiss cases, the setting up of FELP/FBI Loyalty Boards, or cultural impacts, e.g. films, comics, etc..]] THRESHOLD ANSWERS Firstly, the Red Scare led to a clampdown on freedom. ## 4a. Study Source A. Why was this source published in 1956?

Assessment Objectives	AO3 (a): Analyse sources contemporary to the period. [5]

In the cartoon we can see an African American refusing to board the bus, which is labelled, 'segregation'. This would have reminded African Americans that by refusing to use the buses, they were also taking a stand against discrimination. The cartoon was published at this time because the civil rights activists had organised a boycott of the city's bus laws that discriminated against African Americans. The activists were therefore keen to make sure that nobody broke the boycott until the laws were changed. NB The purpose of a source is an intended impact or call to action. 5.* 'Black Power did more to harm than to help the struggle for civil rights between 1964 and 1974.' How far do you agree?

Assessment Objectives	AO2: Explain and analyse historical events and periods studied using second-order historical concepts. [10] AO1: Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the periods studied. [8]
Additional Guidance	The 'Indicative content' is an example of historically valid content; any other historically valid content is acceptable and should be credited in line with the levels of response. Answers at Level 4 require one point on each side of the argument and one element of support. Answers with more valid support than this should be awarded L5. The 'Indicative content' shown is not a full exemplar answer, but exemplifies the sophistication expected at each level. No reward can be given for wider knowledge of the period that remains unrelated to the topic in the question.

Level 5 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The response has a full explanation and thorough analysis of historical events/periods, which uses relevant second order historical concepts, and is developed to reach a convincing, substantiated conclusion in response to the question.</li> <li>This is supported by a range of detailed and accurate knowledge and understanding that is fully relevant to the question.</li> <li>There is a well-developed and sustained line of reasoning which is coherent, relevant and logically structured.</li> </ul>	Level 5 answers will typically construct a balanced and well-supported argument which uses a range of supporting evidence to support the argument being made, e.g. It could be argued that the Black Power movement did harm the struggle for civil rights. The radical nature of the movement alarmed moderates. For example, the Black Panthers had their own private army and said Black Americans should arm themselves. This alienated white supporters who had been sympathetic to the civil rights movement. Also, Black Power can be seen as at least partly responsible for the wave of race riots in US cities in 1965. The violence gave the authorities an excuse to crack down on other civil rights activists, leading to splits in the civil rights movement. However, the Black Power movement did a lot to help the struggle for civil rights. Black Power leaders like Malcom X encouraged African Americans to take pride in being black and in their own culture. This helped African Americans to develop identity and cultural pride, which supported the underlying aims of the civil rights movement. In addition, the Black power movement put much emphasis on social and economic inequalities of Black Americans, especially those in northern cities, which they felt had been ignored by leaders like Martin Luther King. This drew attention to the terrible working and living conditions of poor African Americans. On balance I agree with the statement because the harm caused is tangible – it led to splits and criticism of the whole movement – whereas the positive impact of consciousness raising is difficult to measure. It certainly drew attention to the reality of black people's lives but this media attention was not always positive. NB: 18 marks = As below plus a clinching argument  16-17 marks = 4 explained points (3-1 or 2-2)  15-16 marks = 3 explained points (2-1)	15–18

Level 4 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The response has a full explanation and analysis of the historical events/periods, which uses relevant second order historical concepts, and is used to develop a fully supported answer to the question.</li> <li>This is supported by a range of accurate knowledge and understanding that is fully relevant to the question.</li> <li>There is a well-developed line of reasoning which is clear, relevant and logically structured.</li> </ul>	Level 4 answers will typically construct a balanced or one-sided argument with support from at least two explained points e.g. It could be argued that the Black Power movement did harm the struggle for civil rights. The radical nature of the movement alarmed moderates. For example, the Black Panthers had their own private army and said Black Americans should arm themselves. This alienated white supporters who had been sympathetic to the civil rights movement's However, the Black Power movement did a lot to help the struggle for civil rights. Black Power leaders like Malcom X encouraged African Americans to take pride in being black and in their own culture. This helped African Americans to develop identity and cultural pride. This increased support for the Civil Rights Movement's underlying aims. Reserve 14 marks for clinching argument; 12 marks is standard and one mark for additional development of either point.	11–14
Level 3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The response has an analysis and explanation of the historical events/period, which uses relevant second order historical concepts, and is used to give a supported answer to the question.</li> <li>This is supported by accurate knowledge and understanding that is relevant to the question.</li> <li>There is a line of reasoning presented which is mostly relevant and which has some structure.</li> </ul>	Level 3 answers will typically develop a Level 2 answer with one of the points explained, eg. It could be argued that the Black Power movement did harm the struggle for civil rights. The radical nature of the movement alarmed moderates. For example, the Black Panthers had their own private army and said Black Americans should arm themselves. This alienated white supporters who had been sympathetic to the civil rights movement.	7–10
Level 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The response has an explanation about the historical events/period, which uses relevant second order historical concepts, and gives an answer to the question set.</li> <li>This is supported by some knowledge and understanding that is relevant to the question.</li> <li>There is a line of reasoning which has some relevance and which is presented with limited structure.</li> </ul>	Level 2 answers will typically identify reasons to support/challenge the statement and/or describe Black Power e.g. Yes, Black Power did more to harm the movement because it put a lot of moderate people off supporting civil rights because it scared them. OR Black Power leaders believed in black nationalism. The Nation of Islam felt that African Americans should create their own separate black state in the USA. Malcolm X said they were justified in using force if necessary. OR Malcolm X was prepared to use force if black people weren't listened to. The Black Panthers were a political party with about 2,000 members. They had their own private army. No, Black Power did more to help because they placed emphasis on pride in being black. The Nation of Islam attracted high profile figures such as Muhammad Ali to their cause. The SNCC were very critical of the work of Martin Luther King and wanted to take a radical approach. Carmichael and King were united on some issues such as tackling poverty amongst black communities. NB This question is about Black Power, not a contrast with peaceful protest.	4–6

Level 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The response has a basic explanation about the historical events/period in the question, though the specific question may be answered only partially or the answer may be in the form of assertion that is not supported by the preceding explanation. Second order historical concepts are not used explicitly, but some very basic understanding of these is apparent in the answer.</li><li>• There is basic knowledge that is relevant to the topic of the question.</li><li>• The information is communicated in a basic/unstructured way.</li></ul>	Level 1 answers will typically make general assertions e.g.  Black Power was very radical. Black Power gained a lot of attention at this time. Black Power was about violence.	1–3
Level 0  No response or no response worthy of credit.		0
